JAN -9 1918 ©CLE415382

"OUR. FLAG'S. GREATEST. VICTORY"

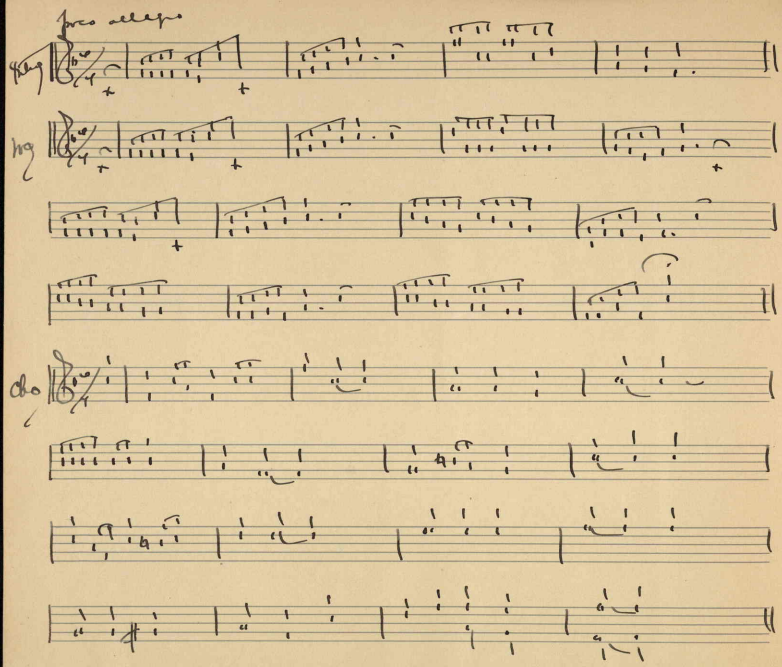
SONG

POEM or COPYRIGHT = BY JOS. A. STIGLBAUER = 642 = 32d St MILWAUKEE. WISC.

MUSIC. BY

R. A. BROWNE,
790 DAWSON ST.,
NEW YORK CITY

M1646
.B



"Our Flag's Greatest Victory" By Jos. A. Stiglbauer.

1

All Europe is a battlefield as in the days of old;
To best a wicked ruler who is mighty and who's bold;
He's barring ocean highways that by rights should all be free;
He's sink ships of all nations who have tried to rule the sea;
He challenges our nation, dares this great land of the free;
We'll conqer this dread tyrant, and we'll give the whole world peace.

CHORUS.

Oh glorious Star Spangled Banner--Red, White, and Blue!
You are fighting for the world's freedom and liberty, too;
Oh, glorious Star Spangled Banner--Red, White, and Blue!
The world's emblem of peace--all nations honor you.

2

All tyrant rule will vanish and all lust for pow'r end;
All strife will end, and also all this slaughtering of men;
All nations they will prosper in the peace that makes them free;
They'll trade with one another as they safely sail the sea;
For there'll be none to bar them from the ocean or the seas;
For they'll be under one flag that gave them freedom of seas.

423039