"When The Band Plays Yankee Doodle" By Charles Marston.

At wars alarms you carry arms to fight your country's fight;
The nation's flag's been trampled down,that's all you see in sight;
Without a care,you do,and dare,while fighting at the front;
And ev'ry one--each mother's son must bear the battle's brunt.

CHORUS.

When the band plays"Yankee Doodle" then inspiration steals
Thro ev'ry bone and sinew,until the true heart feels
Some unjust wrong is staining the old Red,White and Blue;
So fight with might your country's fight--you Yankee Doodle Do!

Here is a chance to fight for France;to pay back all we owe.
And,don't I meet 'twas Lafayette,who help us long ago;
So one and all mark to the call to save Democracy!
To win or die,the battle cry is"Down with Germany!"
