©CLE427579R

JUL 17 1918

Castellucci, E.

Dear old mother of mine.

M1646
.C

"Dear Old Mother Of Mine"

Words by A. A. Nunziant. Music by E. Castellucci

Tempo di Marcia

f

A moth-er dear, — with-out fear, said to her boy one day — I love — you — and I'll miss you — when
Now I must say my heart is gay each time I look at you — Faith in — you — is great be-cause you

p

you have gone a-way, — Man-y tears I'll shed she soft-ly said — for you while — ov-er are so brave and true — When you're ov-er the sea, think of me — who prays for — you each

there — And in re-ply he smiled and said: "Now listen mother dear." — night. — Now mother dear — please have no fear, Re-member while I fight. —

Copyrighted 1918 by A. A. Nunziant. 273 Lafayette St, Newark, N. J.

Chorus.

Some days must be dark and dreary, — The sun can-not al-ways shine — Some p - f

days will be gay and cheery, — Full of joy and love di-vine — Now as we part ease your heart, For in me you'll al-ways find — A lov-ing son — who will quickly come back to you dear old mother of mine — Some mine —

f

435751