MAY 28 1921 ©CI E512122

WHEN I GET TO NEW JERSEY.

Song

WORDS AND MUSIC BY
ANTHONY BUONOCORE
ARRANGED BY JOHN RUSSO

PUBLISHED BY FRANK HARDING
228 E. 22ND ST. NEW YORK CITY

IF YOU CANNOT OBTAIN COPIES FROM YOUR DEAL
SEND DIRECT TO THE PUBLISHER.

M1646
.B

When I get to New Jersey

Music arr. by
JOHN RUSSO

Words and Music by
ANTHONY BUONOCORE

Intro.

Voice

You may say what you want of your own state, But there is one thing I can say, The wee lit - tle state where I come from, 'Tis the state where I'm go - ing to day.

When I'm back once a - gain in my home town, The folks will all greet me with smiles, My sweet-heart will be there to meet me, I am sure there with joy they'll treat me.

Vamp

f

p

Copyright MCMXXI by Anthony Buonocore, Garfield, N. J.

Chorus

When I get to New Jer - sey, there's where I'm long-ing to be,

p-f

I've got a sweetheart who's waiting for me, Oh! boys how hap-py I'll be,

When I'm back in New Jer - sey, wed - ding bells will ring, I'll build a home for two or more, when I get to New Jer - sey. sey.

3 SELECTED SONGS 3

"Send the Baby to Bed with a Kiss"

WORDS AND MUSIC BY R. H. BRENNEN

A Song that Grips the Heart of Every Mother, Bringing Back the Baby Days of Daughters and Sons, Through the Magic Scenes of Memory.

A Terriffic Hit Wherever Sung. Worthy of a place in any Home.

25 CENTS PER COPY POST-PAID, TO ANY ADDRESS.

"THEY GAVE YOU A HEART OF GOLD"

WORDS AND MUSIC BY MARK BEAM.

Wonderful Lyrics, Beautiful Sentiment, The Wealth and Fame and Honors of the World Fade away before the Smiling Eyes of the One Girl In The World

A SONG FOR EVERY SWEETHEART 25 CENTS PER COPY.

"SOLOMON WAS CERTAINLY A WISE OLD GUY"

WORDS BY R. H. BRENNEN MUSIC BY PAULINE B. STORY

The Song that has set the East side Laughing and Singing, The Solemnest faced Rabbi has to Smile at the Lyrics While the Music Swings You Along.

Ask for These Songs or Order from the Publisher.

5231186