Now we're fight-ing far o-ver the o-cean, O-ver there for sweet lib-er-ty's sake; O-ver there 'mid the loud roar of can-non, All the pow'r of cru-el ty-rants to break. Now we're there side by side with our al-lies, Now we're with them war's dan-gers to share. We're

Night and day there you hear can-non roar-ing, Night and day there you see bat-tles rage, And brave men by the mil-lion are gath-ered There this war for world free-dom to wage. Dear old Glo-ry is there proud-ly wav-ing, Wav-ing high o'er the staunch and the true. And a fight-ing o - ver there 'neath Old Glo - - ry, Yes, for sweet free-dom ev' - ry where.

vic - t'ry we'll win now for free - dom, Right there 'neath Red, White and Blue.

CHORUS

We're fight-ing o - ver there 'neath Old Glo - ry, The flag of the brave and the free. We're fight-ing o - ver there 'neath Old Glo - ry, In France far a - way o'er the sea. Oh we're there now in blue and in kha - ki, Yes, we're there on land, sea and air; And a vic t'ry we'll win sure for free - dom, For Old Glo - ry is wav - ing there! we're there!
