MAY 29 1919 ©CLE451783

Welcome Home, Soldier Boy, Welcome Home.

Words by Henry Buber

Music by Fred Bug

Piano

E♭ Orig.

Introduction

Vamp

Verse

P

Sold - ier boy you've been a - way — — And you've come back home to stay — — We're proud to have you with us once a - gain Sold - ier boy your work is through — — And we've our it all to you — — you fought the foe with all your might and man — — And now that you are here — — E - very bo - dy give a cheer

Sold - ier boy the war is over And you've back with us once more We all were hop - ing for your safe re - turn There were oth - er na - tions too But they left it up to you That you knew how to fight they won and did you're on he - ro of the land We want to shake your hand

M1646
.B

Chorus

Wel-come home sold-ier boy wel-come home — — We hope nev-er more you'll have to roam — — You gave up all for du-ty and what you thought was right And when you land-ed o-ver there you showed them how to fight You've been brave sold-ier boy you've been brave — — All that you had you glad-ly gave — — You've been loy-al through and through To the old Red White and Blue Wel-come home sold-ier boy wel-come home — — — fine

Nr. 3—Carl Fischer, New York.

461279