JAN 27 1919

She is Going to Raise Her Boy to be a Soldier

By

CHARLES F. CONRAD

M646
C

PUBLISHED BY
Delmar Music Co.
CHICAGO

She Is Going to Raise Her Boy to Be a Soldier

CHARLES F. CONRAD

Valse moderato

mf

Years a - go be - fore the war of na - tions had be - gun, A

p

moth-er did - n't raise her boy to fight and shoot a gun; But when she read a - bout the rape of Bel - gium by the Hun, She said: "When you are old e - nough you must en - list, my son."

Copyright 1919 by Charles F. Conrad

CHORUS

She's go-ing to raise her boy to be a sol - dier, She's go-ing to raise her
The world is full of mis-er-y and strife, She is hap-py as a boy for Un-cle Sam. He shall be strong and brave And keep his gal-lant sol-dier's wife; And while "Dad" is o-ver there, She'll ev-'ry coun-try safe; He'll be proud that he's a real A-mer-i-can. Tho' bur-den bear, She knows that he may sac-ri-fice his life. To girls ful-fill their pro-per role in na-ture, And they're com-par-ing well in time of war; But make a moth-er proud in peace and war, She must for-get that oth-er song of yore; She'll boys can bear a gun, And make the foe-men run, So she's go-ing to raise her boy to be a sol - dier.

mp

proud-ly give her boy, And will do so with great joy, For she's go-ing to raise her boy to be a sol - dier.

449016