APR -2 1919

"Hail Freedom Hail"

Hail all nations freedom morn Hail A-mer-i-ca where born

Hail her ban-ner yet un-torn Hail free-dom hail.

Chorus

Hail Hail Hail all na-tions freedom morn, Hail hail hail the day that thou wert born. Hail hail hail all hail to free doms morn yes we are hailing new free dom to-day

Copyright by Julia S. Dyer 1919 Words and Music.

Music by Francis M. Leroy.

M1646
.C

459216

America's International Song of "World Freedom"

APR -2 1919
©CLE448961

Music by Francis M. Leroy

"Hail Freedom Hail".

Hail all nations freedom morn—
Hail America where born;
Hail Her banner yet unborn;
"Hail Freedom hail".
Freedom be the song thats sung—
Freedom by earths heroes won—
Freedom's song on every tongue—
"Hail Freedom hail".

Hail to U.S. stripes and stars—
Hail Her heroes, soldiers, tars—;
Hail Her freedom from world wars—
"Hail Freedom hail".
Hail Her heroes, brave and true—
Hail Her Chief all hail to You—
Hail Her Flag, red, white and blue—
Hail Freedoms flag.

Chorus

Hail, hail, hail all nations Freedom's morn;
Hal, hail, hail the day that thou wert born;
Hail, hail, hail, all hail to Freedom's morn;
Yes we're hailing "New Freedom", today.

Freedoms banner now unfurled
Freedom now shall crown the world
Freedom be the echo hurled
"Hail Freedom hail".
Hail all nations, tribe and tongue
Hail "World's freedom", now when young
Shout the Chorus every tongue
"Hail Freedom hail".

Chorus — Hail, Hail, Hail — etc —

Shall men's hopes and shall their fears
Shall their human blood and tears
Now be lost when brighter years
Hail "Freedoms morn"?
No — by powers on land and sea,
No — by all just powers that be,
No — by Heav'n, men shall be free,
"Hail Freedom hail".

By all nations kindred tree,
By all laws that make men free,
By the past dread memory
"Hail Freedom hail";
By one common parent tongue,
By mens hopes, bright, buoyant, young,
By "One League of Nations" - strong,
"Hail Freedom hail".

Chorus -
Hail, hail, hail all nations Freedom's morn,
Hail, hail, hail the day that thou wert born,
Hail, hail, hail, all hail to Freedom's morn
Yes we're hailing "New Freedom" - today.

Copyright by Julia S. Dyer - 1919 - Words with music.

The above Song, composed and written on the occasions of the signing of the late Armistice (Nov 11th 1918), and the signing of - "The League of Nations", (Febr - 15th 1919). as a Memorial to President Woodrow Wilson and as such, dedicated to the world, by the Author.