©CLE 119007
MAR 20 1918

Don't You Dare to Flirt with Me,
(For I'm a Soldier Sammy 'Cross the Sea)

Words & Music by H. S. Cugua.

1st Verse

A pretty girl was walking down the Avenue and all the men turned around to stare.
She was chic, and beautiful to look upon, her face so young and fair.
A very bold man stepped up to her, smilingly raised his hat and tried to bar the way.
Where have I met you before, I'm pleased to see your face once more
And then the lady turned around to say

Chorus

Don't you dare to flirt with me,
For I'm a soldier Sammy 'cross the sea,
I intend to be as true to him,
As ever I know how to be.
Don't you dare to flirt with me,
For he is fighting for our liberty.
You won't do nor any other fellow,
Don't you dare try to flirt with me.

2nd Verse

One day I saw a lady who was charmingly dressed a pretty picture for to see,
Got on a street car and every man got up polite as they could be,
She sat down in a seat and thanked the gentle man in a way that seemed to be well bred,
Then he started in to win her would you like to go to dinner, with me, then she turned to him and said.

(Chorus)

M1646
.C

Words & Music
by H S Cuqua

Don't You Dare to Flirt with Me
(For I've a Soldier Jammy Cross the Sea)

Moderato

f.

a pret-ty girl was walk-ing down the av-en-ue and the men all turned ar-and to one day I saw a lad-y who was charm-ing-ly dressed a pret-ty pic-ture for to stare — She was chick and beau-ti-full to look up on her See — get on a street car and ev'-ry man got up po-face so young and fair a ver-y bold man stepped up to her smiling-ly raised his lite as the could be She sat down in a seat and thanked the gentleman in a hat and tried to bar her way — where have I met you be- fore In way that seemed to be well bred — Then he star- ted in to win her pleased to see you face once me and Then she la- dy turned a- round to Say — would you like to go to din- ner, with me, then she turned to him and Said —

Don't you dare to flirt with me for I'm a Sol- dier Sam- my Cross the Sea — I in- tend to be as true to him as ev- er I know how to be — Don't you dare to flirt with me — For he is fight- ing for our lib- er- ty —

Ped

You won't do nor an- y oth- er fell- ow, don't you dare > try to flirt with

Staccato

me me

427071