MISS AUBER
Not too slow.

1 Oh, praise our great and gracious Lord, And call up - on his name;
2 We, too, have man - na from a - bove. — The bread that came from heaven;
3 Oh, let us prize this blessed food, And trust our heav'nly Guide;

To strains of joy tune ev' - ry chord, His migh - ty acts pro - claim.
To us the same kind hand of love Hath liv - ing wa - ters given.
So shall we find death's fear - ful flood Se - rene as Jor - dan's tide;

Tell how he led his cho - sen race To Canaan's promised land;
A Rock we have, from whence the spring In rich a - bundance flows;
And safe - ly reach that hap - py shore, The land of peace and rest,

Tell how his cov - e - nant of grace Unchanged shall ev - er stand.
That Rock is Christ, our Priest, our King, Who life and health be - stows.
Where an - gels wor - ship and a - dore, In God's own presence blest.
