THE BOYS OF THE WESTERN PLAINS.

Mr. James Barr. M. DuFrerre.

Here's health to the boys of the western plain,
Give at-tention now friends, and join in this re-frain-
With a word of good cheer to those that's in France,
And who are clearing that coun-try of gun, sword and lance.
And be-fore long they will be back home a - gain,
And God will bless those who in battles were slain;
That did fight for their loved ones ov-er the sea,
In the great cause of Free-dom and Lib-er - ty.

Here's a health to the boys and their friend will remain,
That did sail from Canada, freedom's domain;
No finer soldiers you could see in the ranks,
True Canadians and British and Yanks.
And in history their loyal and brave deeds will speak,
How they fought with the enemy and did defeat;
And now they are crossing the enemy's lines,
And driving them back home over the Rhine.
