CHARLOTTE-HALL SCHOOL.

An examination of the Pupils was held, on the 25th and 27th days of July, before the Trustees of the institution and many of the Parents and Guardians of the Pupils; and orations were delivered the following day, before a very numerous audience, and received with unbounded applause. The examiners, who were Dr. John Parnham, Mr. Frederick Campbell, late of William and Mary college, Virginia, and Mr. John Ralph, late of Princeton college, New Jersey, expressed their high approbation of the state of the school and the progressive improvement of the pupils generally; while they felt a high degree of satisfaction at the excellence of several, in each department.

After the examination and orations had been finished, the annual vacation commenced, and school will, again open on the first day of September next.
