©ALE456004
MAY 22 1919

WELCOME HOME HEROES ALL

Words and Music By Louis W. Everson

M1646
.E

Waldemar Music Publishing Co.
SELMA CALIF.

Welcome Home, Heroes All!

A Greeting To The Boys From Over There.

Words and Music by
LOUIS W. EVERSON.

Tempo di marcia.

Load - ed with sol - diers in kha - ki brown, And sail - ors in na-vy blue, A trans-port ar - rived in old New York town,
He - roes of Bel - gium and shell torn France, Of Eng - land and It - a - ly, Had gal - lant-ly praised their vic - tor - ious ad - vance,

Bring-ing them back to you. As they stood watch - ing the shore so fair, Anx - ious some dear one to greet; Borne on the Fight-ing for Lib - er - ty! Kis - ses and flow - ers and hand - clasp strong, Filled their brave hearts with true pride; But more than rit.

Copyright MCMXIX by Waldemar Music Publishing Co., Selma, California.

breeze came a sim - ple air, Bring-ing this mes-sage sweet.
this meant to them the song, Waf-ted a-cross the tide.

rit.

REFRAIN.

Wel-come Home, He-roes all, To the land that loves you best, To a a tempo

mil - lion wait-ing fire - sides, In the North, South, East and West! We were proud, When you sailed, And we're just as proud to - day! Here's to you, Tried and true, And the good ol' U. S. A! Wel-come

1 2

fz

466189