To whatever is coming what we have to give
And our spirit for freedom for ever shall live,
United we work and united we fight
To protect what belongs to humanity's right.
It is no aggression of gold nor of land
But freedom and righteousness is our demand.
United we work and united we fight
Our victory shall show to the world we are right.
Chorus:

Bless our boys that shall fight on the shores far away
And our spirit goes with them we hope and we pray
Let righteousness win over all tyrannny,
So the world can rejoice in the song of the free.
Let the spirit arise from the blood stained earth
So let "good will to man" be our motto
And the angels shall greet us from Heavenly shore
When United we stand for to fight never more.
Chorus.
