AUG -5 1918

Take A Chance for Uncle Sammy

Words by JAPPY R. SCHROETER

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

NORTH AMERICAN MUSIC PUBLISHING CO.
119 No. Clark St., Chicago, Ill.

Take A Chance For Uncle Sammy

Words by JAPPY R. SCHROETER

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

f

Have you got a yel-low streak? Are you a Pro-Ger-man freak? If you are,
When the Kias-er hears our call, He will know he's doomed to fall, There is not,

p

if you are, look out; You had bet-ter wash it white, not a chance for him; Let us hur-ry while we may,

And you can if you will fight, Go to war and help them shout.
Join the ranks and save the day, Shoulder arms and sing this hymn.

Copyright, MCMXVIII, by Jappy R. Schroeter

CHORUS

There's a chance that will win this great war, don't you know, There's a p–f chance that will lick those Dutch sons fight-ing so, There's a chance you won't die, If you do you'll go on high, Where your soul it shall be free, There's a chance, take a chance for Un-cle Sam - my.

450500