Voice

I've spelled a name called Our hie-t'ry tells the moth-er, — 'Twas dear-est to my heart; — But now I've spelled an-oth-er, — For she and I must sto-ry — How he-roes fought and fell; — Our chil-dren love "Old Glo-ry" — And learn that name to part. — I'd love to live and love her — Be-neath her smil-ing skies; They mean much more than dad or spell. — We're proud of all our splen-dor, — And ev-'ry heart to-day — Should rise and wor-ship to de-broth-er — And spell a Yan-kee's par-a-dise. — "A" means you're an-y-bod-y's coun-fend her — And learn to spell her name this way. —

Chorus

try, "M" means you're meant for me; — "E" means you're ev-'ry-bod-y's sweet-heart, And "R" for the right of lib-er-ty. — "I" stands for in-de-pen-dence first and all, "C" for your col-ors so grand; —

f

A-M-E-R-I-C-A, A-mer-i-ca means "I love you, my Yan-kee Land." —
