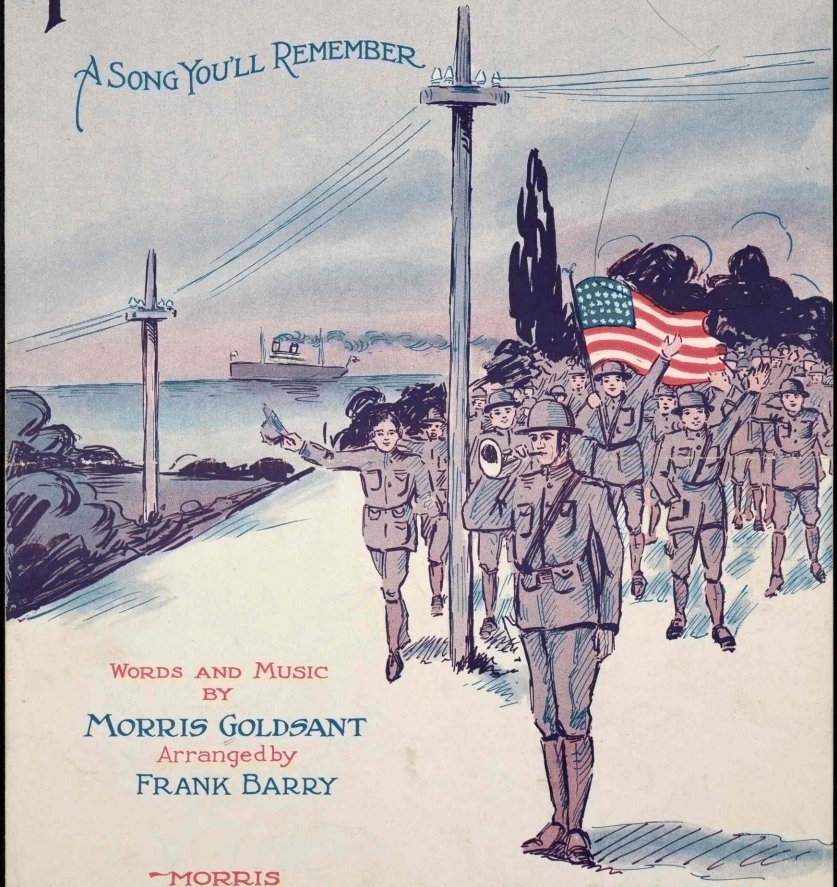
FEB -4 1919 ©CLE441968

THAT TELEGRAPH RAG

A SONG YOU'LL REMEMBER



WORDS AND MUSIC
BY MORRIS GOLDSANT
Arranged by FRANK BARRY

MORRIS
MUSIC PUBLISHER
127 So. Halsted St.
CHICAGO.

M1646
.G

That Telegraph Rag

Words and Music by
MORRIS GOLDSANT
Arranged by Frank E. Barry

Allegro moderato

f

What's that I hear? Oh that mys-te-ri-ous
That wire-less flash, Oh that won-der-ful

Mysterioso

mf

noise! (tap-tap.) It's from the boys, A mes-sage of good light! (zip-zap.) They've stopped the fight And brought back lib-er-cheer. In Wash-ing-ton the ech-o of a gun, ty. In France they danced the wire-less mel-o-dy,

It's a won-der-ful noise. Hear those whist-les blow-ing,
What a won-der-ful tune. When the bands start play-ing,

Copyright MCMXVIII, by Morris Goldsant, Chicago, Ill.

See those mes - sen - gers go - ing, With that Tel - e - graph Rag Hear the Huns start say - ing, "Here's that Tel - e - graph Rag."

ff

CHORUS

Oh! that Tel - e - graph Rag, that Rag.

p – f

Those Yanks are danc - ing, pranc - ing, with their flag, some flag!

Hear the bu - gle call - ing, Those can-non roar - ing (Bing, bang, bing!) When they hear that sound-ing (Tap, tap, tap,) Of that Tel - e - graph Rag. Rag.

Rayner Dalheim & Co.
Music Printers & Engravers
Chicago, Ill.

450533