©LE406501 c
JUN 16 1917 R

They Fight For Right!

Words and Music by

Cora Lee C. Goldstein.

M1646
.G

Words and Music by Cora Lee O. Goldstein

They Fight For Right

moderato

mf

mf

Off they sail to a distant land Far from home and friends now he lands on a foreign shore none know where he goes cresc.

The boys of north and the boys of south - All the flag of pestile to lift on high For cresc.

rit.

dif' rence now at an end. And oh! the homes so free-dom or else to die. But Oh! God spare our

a tempo

rit.

rit. a tempo

desolate. And oh! the hearts that now must break For brave marines. For somewhere at home hearts now must bleed. In

rit. a tempo

years will come and years will go But ne'er will some re-trenches cold. In ships dark hold. There's some will be left be-

Chorus

mf

turn. Over the sea they ply their way. With hopes all hind.

mf

raised for glorious sake, Never a thought to delay Never a mind

410414

thought at home to stay Stalwart and strong they sail far off Honor achieved their Eams will their part God, Right and Home with valiant fight O! give them strength to fail to the fight rit.

rit.