©CLE#23340 R.
APR 29 1918

Battle Hymn of the Allies

Words and Music
by Frederick Hall
April 26.1918
131 Hamilton St
East Orange N.J.

Introduction

Voice

1. Onward! onward now for Freedom Now as ne'er be fore
All the tortured world cries "Vengeance!. Kultur, For the spawn ye bore"!
Rise! Freemen and ye who would be free men, Crush "the Beast" which batters at the door Up! ye brave and onward! Fate is call ing on the Cannon's roar

Chorus

Courage! all ye Nations pull to-gether We must chain the Hun
All the world must be made safe for Freedom Victory must be won
"Liberty, Equality, Fraternity" Never more to Satan's horde shall bow
Courage! All ye Nations pull to-gether! God is with us now.

2. Onward! Onward now for Freedom!
Now as ne'er before!
Better far to travail through the Valley –
Heralds of the gore –
Paying in our bodies for the freedom
Of our spirits, from the Prussian boar
Now or never! Up! and on! and smash him
In the Cannon's roar.

No. 1
M1646
.H

3 Onward! onward now for Tarlow!

Now as ne'er before!

Hark! the bugle calls of mighty heroes

~~[illegible]~~ from life's further shore!

"Carry on" their "Torch" with high devotion,

Who for us their life blood did out pour

When the poppies grow in fields of Flanders

In the cannons' roar!

---

4 Onward! Onward now for Tarlow!

Now as ne'er before!

Keep the faith with those whose deathless spirits

O'er the battle soar!

May the God of Justice give us truly

Humble strength of faith like men of yore:

Thus to make us fit to rightly conquer

In the cannons' roar.

No. 1

431028