APR -8 1919 ©CLE448086

DEDICATED TO FATHER DUFFY, CHAPLAIN, 165th REGT., FORMERLY 69th REGT. NEW YORK

BRAVE BOYS OLD 69th

YOUR'E WELCOME HOME

SUNG WITH GREAT SUCCESS BY Privt. WILLIAM O'MARA
Co. A, 165th Regt., Rainbow Division

Words by
JAMES H. FLATTERY, (Uncle Al)
& JOSEPH F. POKORNY
Writers of American Guards, Etc.

MUSIC BY ROGER HALLE Writer of
"Why Can't a Girl Be a Soldier?, Etc.

PRICE, 50 CENTS

Published by R. HALLE
173 East 93d St. New York City

M1646
.H

Dedicated to Father Duffy Chaplain 165th Regt. formerly 69th Regt. N.Y.

BRAVE BOYS
You're Welcome Home

Words by
JAMES H. FLATTERY
(Uncle Al)
Writer of: American Guards'

Music by ROGER HALLE Writer of:
Why Can't A Girl Be A Soldier? etc.

Marcia

Piano

They sailed a - way from New York Bay in trans-ports staunch and swift — The
At Cha - teau Thie - ry nev - er lea - ry beat the bru - tal Hun — At brave old gal - lant Six - ty Ninth Now called One Six - ty Fifth — And Bel - leu Wood they sure made good with each shot from their gun — And o - ver there midst cheer and prayer they crossed the brin - y foam — To at the Marne with - out a - larm they made the Ger - man run — They win the fight for Lib - er - ty and now they're com - ing home. made them yell with shot and shell and now they're com - ing home. Ni - fi - ty

Copyright MCMXIX by Roger Halle

Chorus

niff one six-ty - fifth You brave - ly done your share Hip-pi-ty hop o-ver the top in the big fight

o - ver there The Kai - ser's dream you smashed for him You made him grunt and groan You won the day Hip, hip, hoo - ray Brave boys You're wel - comed home. Ni - fi - ty home.

455707