Picture Section,
Rotogravure: Part 1

The New York Times

Sunday,
December 5, 1915

HOMES BUILT BY INGENIOUS GERMAN SOLDIERS
Only 200 Yards Behind Their Trenches, to Which They Retire for Rest and Recreation When Relieved of Actual Duty on the Firing Line.
(Photo from Feature Photo Service.)

MME. MARFA MALKO,
Wife of a Russian Junior Officer and Herself a Soldier in the Russian Army, Between Her Teutonic Captors.

MRS. WILLIAM G. McADOO, FORMERLY MISS ELEANOR WILSON, AND HER LITTLE DAUGHTER, ELLEN WILSON McADOO.
From a photograph taken on Thanksgiving Day.
(Photo © by Clinedinst, from Underwood & Underwood.)

BRAND WHITLOCK, AMERICAN MINISTER TO BELGIUM.
From a photograph taken on his arrival here to recuperate from the strain of his work at Brussels since the war began.
(Photos © by Underwood & Underwood.)

MISSES MARION AND ESTHER CLEVELAND, DAUGHTERS OF THE LATE PRESIDENT GROVER CLEVELAND AND MRS. THOMAS J. PRESTON, JR.
From a photograph taken ten days ago when the Misses Cleveland were bridesmaids at the wedding of Miss Elizabeth Hibben.