(Conversational.)

It will make your boys' eyes shine, If he's like those boys of mine; If you have a dozen boys

a tempo

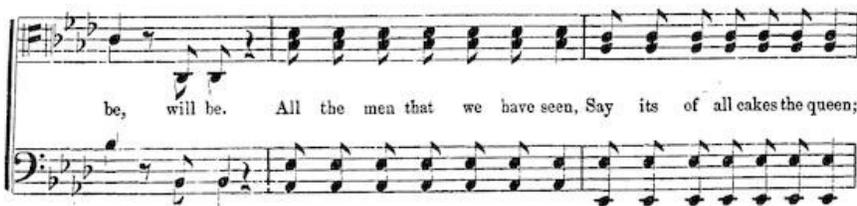

To increase your household joys, Double, then, this rule I should; Twice as much you'll have that's good.
rit. ad lib. (noise!)

cres. m cres.

When you've nothing else for tea, for tea; This the ver - y thing will be, will be. All the men that we have seen, Say its of all cakes the queen;

Corn Bread.

rit. > a tempo.

Good enough for an - y King, That a husband home may bring; Warming up the hu-man stove

Cheering up the hearts we love. On - ly Tyn-dall can explain The links between the cake and brain ;

Get your hus - band what he likes, And save a hun - dred house-hold strikes !

Make his dis - po - sition sweet, 'Tis the ver - y thing to eat corn bread !
