He looks on the babe at its moth-er's breast, And blighteth that blos-som fair, For its young buds wither and fade and die 'Neath the gaze of Old Don't Care; And in place of these there springeth up, Full ma-ny a poi-son-ous weed, And their tendrils coil round the victim's heart, A lank and loathsome breed, Blighting the spirit young and fair, A vil-lain strong is

3. He meeteth bold man-hood on his way, And wrest-leth with him there, And he falls a sure and ea-sy prey To the strength of Old Don't Care, ----- Then he plants his foot on his vic-tims breast And shout-eth with de-mon joy, ---- And treadeth the life from his pant-ing heart, And ex-ul-teth to de-stroy-------- Crushing bold man-hood ev-'ry where, A vil-lain strong is Old Don't Care! A vil-lain strong is Old Don't Care!
