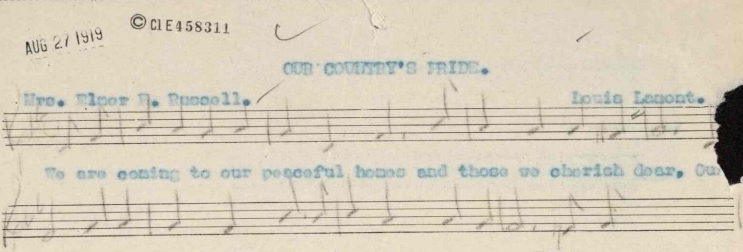
OUR COUNTRY'S PRIDE.

Mrs. Elnor R. Russell. Louis Lamont.



(2)

Our loved ones grieved because we went, it was not as they willed,
They feared we never would return, on the field we might be killed.
But we marched on to victory, ever trusting God as our guide;
The Stars and Stripes to lead us on, which is our country's pride.

(3)

Old Glory waved above our heads, we were on German soil,
The Huns tried to drive us back, but we were there to foil.
All their attempts were as naught, they had to surrender,
And we know our President is the man they'll all remember.
