Ould Doctor Ma' Ginn

The ould doctor had only wan failin',
  It stayed wid him, faith, till he died;
And that was the habit av wearin'
  His darby a thrifle wan side!

And twenty times daily 'twas straightened,
  But try as he would for a year,
Not thinkin', he'd give it a teether
  A trifle down over one ear!

It sat him lop-sided and aisy;
  It throubled his kith and his kin—
But och, 'twas the only thing crooked
  About our ould Doctor Ma' Ginn!

And now that he's gone to his Glory—
  Exuse me, a bit av a tear—
Here's twenty to wan that his halo
  Is slantin' down over his ear!
