On THURSDAY the twenty first day of April of July, if not the next day fair, will be exposed to sale at public vendue, in the town of Alexandria, the following property viz.

LAND.

Late the property of John Fitzgerald, deceased, full purchase to be given on or his without the payment of interest, delivery of title.

ONE parcel of land lying upon the south side of Hunting-creek, and bounded on part of William Brent, containing twenty-eight four open acres, three, and twenty-seven hundred feet in the river, having an alley of twenty feet running thereon a depth, as up as is needful a frame warehouse, the ground is subject to an annual rent of 48 pts. 6d. which we did shingle, or fix up a warehouse without purchaser. One half of a brewery, with all its implements and utensils necessary for carrying on the business, upon a large scale, and a parcel of ground appertaining to it, fronting about forty feet on Water street. The whole of the brewery and ground stand under a domain, an annual of six hundred dollars per annum. Applicant desirous to study jointly on the brewery, and finding those keys for the Water-street, and adjoining one hundred and fifty feet on a twenty feet alley. A piece of ground fronting on Wolfe and St. Asaph-street. This will be half of lots numbered 100, adjoining ground lying upon the South side of King-street, extending far feet to a twenty feet alley—in this lot is a cordial, a two story brick dwelling house, and upon the alley a two story frame warehouse. A piece of ground lying upon Union and Wolfe-streets, adjoining with Washington, Lee and Hill, with lots from sale lots. Upon this there are erected a large distillery, were hands and conveying room. The improvements were calculated for carrying on the business upon an extensive scale; there are three stills in it. Not having been completed sometime past, the property is considerably out of repair. The ground is fifty feet in small front and 120 feet deep. There will be held at the same time, a small parcel of lumber, consisting of about twenty 37 acres. This is subdivided, and will be sold in small parcels, containing from two to acres. The sale will be continued till the whole is sold.

The second half are same lots of the property, which money in hand when deeds will be produced to the purchasers; one other fourth in six months after the sale; one other fourth in twelve months, and the remaining fourth in eighteen months; for securing which payments decided want will be required upon the property conveyed from each purchaser for his part.
