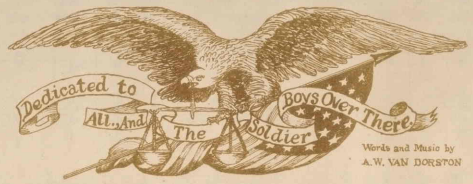
Forging the Way to Berlin



Words and Music by
A.W. VAN DORSTON

VIM, March time

ff

Violin

Five mil-lion strong, We're mov-ing on, Where can - nons boom and re - coil,
We're march-ing on, With fife and drum, The French and the Yank - ee born-
Dear Un - cle Sam, And ev - ry man, Is do - ing all each one can,

Soprano

In ships of steel, And wood - en keels, To trench- es on French soil.
Thru No - Man's Land, With play - ing Band, The Bu - gle calls and horn.
To change the plans of Sa - tan's Clan for all and ev - ry man,

In No - Man's Land, Our he - roes stand, In de - fense of Un - cle Sam,
There is no need of slay - ing men, For In-ter-est on the gold;
And free the world from cra - zy dreams, all for pow - er and for gain,

With Stars and Stripes, The Ae - ro-planes, And Sou - sa's big brass band.
We are march- ing And fight - ing like Sol-diers brave and bold,
With Kais - er Bill, In the land of hills, Mit Gott, and his big sin,

De -stroy the Sword of Trea - son, It's the ruth - less blade of might,
And while we're in the game Kais, we'll bind you with free-dom's chain,
We're com- ing all to get you Kais - er you will then be wiser;

And stay the arm of mur - der, in the ear - ly dawn of right.
Let Jus - tice reign, and stop all men fight- ing for use - less gain.
The Dev - il's Chair we'll save for you, The world's most haugh-ty miser.
