MUSICAL FAVORITES FOR 1882.

This is a very proper appellation for the well chosen new music books printed by OLIVER DITSON & Co. The authors are so well known and successful, the contents are so musical, so fresh, so varied, so well adapted to the needs of the musical public, as the musical public is now constituted, that it is safe to predict a very general use of the list, and a general acquaintance with its contents.

SINGING-CLASS BOOK.

The publishers prefer to have but one book of this kind in a year, and cordially recommend Mr. L. O. EMERSON'S.

HERALD OF PRAISE and the IDEAL.

The first book is a regular Church Music Book, with abundance of Anthems and Soli Pieces, and also a large supply of new Psalm Tunes in all quite a number of them. Chorus-Part Songs, generally easy, for Choir and Singing-School practice; and it has a full Singing School Course, with plenty of exercises and pleasing airs for study and illustration. It costs $1.00 at retail, or 75c. by the dozen.

The IDEAL is simply an abridgment of the larger book, for those who do not care for the Psalm Tunes, and who do not wish to pay a whole dollar for a book. The IDEAL contains the Singing School Course, with a fine collection of easy music, secular and sacred, and it costs but 75c. per copy, or $6.75 for one dozen. At this moderate price, it should be universally known.

FOR GOSPEL MEETINGS.

This is the prevailing name, at present, for all meetings other than those for regular church service. Of course all collections of sacred music are in order for these occasions. Ditson & Co. offer their large assortment of these for selection. Their

MALE VOICE CHOIR (50 cts.)

BY L. O. EMERSON,
supplies a new and large demand for books for Male Voices only, and this contains a capital collection of hymns and attractive tunes. The book is attracting much attention.

The Sabbath-School books, which are always in a vestry, are very convenient for evening singing. Three of recent publication are well furnished in this way.

FOR SABBATH SCHOLARS.

Three books published within a few months of each other would be an unusual venture, were it not that they differ just enough to suit the taste of various communities, while each is musical and most attractive in its arrangement.

THE BEACON LIGHT (30c.)

Is by J. H. TERRY and E. A. FREEMAN; the latter one of the best hymn writers, and the former one of the best composers of simple music in the country. The result of their united efforts is a book to be admired, cherished and enjoyed, being quite full of charming Sunday School lyrics.

LIGHT AND LIFE (35c.)

Is by a compiler of rare ability, R. M. MCINTOSH, whose works are especially popular in the South, but have also a national reputation. The subjects are well chosen, the variety great, and the music decidedly good. It is a kind of book which, seeing, you will consider sure of an extensive sale.

LIGHT AND LIFE (35c.)

PARENT NOTE EDITION.

Patent notes are precisely like common notes, except that the shape of the note-head varies with each degree of the scale. Thus a note which is one of any scale has a triangular head; a note which is six of the scale has a square head, and three of a scale has a diamond-shaped head, and so on. Thus a beginning vocal singer, though he or she may not understand the notation, will not see the need of any change. But as this is a much better and easier thing than the new tonic sol-fa notation, and as there is not the least objection to it except in looks, it is perhaps the best new notation that can be adopted.

BANNER OF VICTORY (35c.)

Is by A. J. ASHLEY and M. J. MUNGER, whose compositions go well together, being in somewhat the same vein. Both are evidently lovers of children, and know well what a Sunday School boy or girl will like. Add to this a discriminating taste in selecting songs in creating sweet melodies, and you have a first rate compiler multiplied by two.

Now of these three good books choose the one you most fancy. But as it is impossible that one of the three should not suit, the publishers are strenuous that every Sunday School man, woman, boy or girl, should have one of the pretty volumes in hand.

CLARKE'S ANTHEMS AND RESPONSES ($1.50)

BY WILLIAM H. CLARKE.

Will be gladly welcomed by quartet and other choirs that wish a new set of pieces. These are all beautiful and effective compositions.

THE OPERAS.

In some sense, the standard Operas are always new, as every new company has to give them. Ditson & Co. keep all on hand, and elegant copies may be purchased for a dollar. Send for list.

Of the newer Operas,

MIGNON ($3), CARMEN ($3), AIDA ($3), MEFISTOFELE ($2),

may be mentioned as of high rank, and the revival of Harold's PRE-AUX-

CLERCS, or Field of Honor ($2), will be welcomed by lovers of what is good and classical.

Of light operas, PATINIZZA ($2) and BELLS OF CORNE-

VILLE ($1.50), are successfully and easily within the reach of amateurs; PATIENCE ($1), and all the many little Operas that are being given everywhere, are promptly printed as soon as they are known, and are for sale at low prices.

All new publications, whether in book or sheet music form, are promptly described, on their appearance, in Ditson & Co.'s which is enlarged and improved, and is invaluable to persons at some distance from the city, who wish to be posted as to the appearance of new singers and players, of new operas and new musical works of all kinds, and of musical events generally and everywhere.

MUSICAL RECORD,

The MUSICAL RECORD is a good-looking WEEKLY of twenty pages, sheet music size, printed on tinted paper, trimmed and stitched, and contains at least four pages of news every issue. All the new books, and all the numerous issues of sheet music from Ditson & Co., are accurately described as they appear, and all music teachers and students are given liberty to use our "Question and Answer column" for the solution of musical doubts, which will be cheerfully solved by the best musical authorities in the country. All competitors are invited to take part in debates on important subjects.

The MUSICAL RECORD is sent out every Saturday, costs $2 per year, and specimen copies are mailed for six cents.

THE NORWAY MUSICAL ALBUM (2.50),

BY FORESTIER AND ANDERSON,

Is one of the musical surprises of the year. There could not well be such sublime and wonderful scenery as Norway presents, without its inspiring a true spirit of poetry and song among the inhabitants. According to the lyrics of the old romantic kind, and musical with certain peculiarities in quality, the world at large begins to appreciate what, in early days, has been circumscribed by the strange land's surrounding seas. The Album appears in a good time to gain many friends and purchasers.

ROBERT FRANZ ALBUM OF SONG ($2.00),

Is another book of rich promise, not a note of its exquisitely wrought harmony being out of place, and not a chord that can be spared. It should be understood that Franz music is nothing when merely sung; when song and accompaniment are properly balanced and blended, there is nothing finer than a Franz' song.

RHYMES AND TUNES ($1.50),

Compiled by two ladies of excellent taste, is one of the very choicest collections of household music, just the one to interest mothers and children. Nursery Songs, Kindergarten Songs, Lullaby Songs, and everything of that kind, all with piano-forte accompaniment.

For many other equally good compilations, consult Ditson's lists, catalogues, and circulars, which are sent free on application.
