proud - ly your bat - tle - ship fac-es the storm that bursts a - bove Remem - ber there's a girl whose heart is full of love For one for whom she will yearn pray-ing that he soon may re - turn So good - by fare thee well I will be wait - ing for you

O - ver the bright and bil - l'wy foam Man - y a hun - dred miles from home

Rides the cit - y on the sea Em - blem of Lib - er - ty

Shades of night are fall - ing fast lights are gleam - ing from the mast

Down, Down, Down the an - chors go

CHORUS

Out on the o - cean blue so far far a - way

Where du - ty calls for him by night and day

Think - ing of home and moth - er fond sweet - heart too

There stands the A - mer - i - can Sail - or staunch and true

Thund-'ring comes the can-non's roll Ma-ny a soul to its goal

Flash-es strike the maddened waves of the an-gry deep! Back the might-y an-swer goes to the hearts of the foes 'Neath the wa-ters ev-'ry-where si-lent he-roes sleep! A-hoy! A-hoy! A-hoy!

Out on the o - cean blue so far, far a - way

Where du - ty calls for him by night and day

Think - ing of home and moth - er fond sweet - heart too

There stands the A-mer-i - can Sail - or staunch and true.
