1

Come Brothers arouse! there is War in the Land,
 For our Country and Laws let us make a bold stand!
 Against Faction and Treason, come, rise in our might,
 And to crush the foul wrong, we will strengthen the right.

McClellan the Soldier, McClellan the Brave,
McClellan the Statesman our Country will save,
 CHORUS. We will flock to his Standard three million times three,
And the Head of the Nation McClellan shall be!
Crying hey! for McClellan, our Chief he shall be! } Either line.

Should the Union be severed woe woe is our lot,
 'Mid the proud and the mighty our Nation's a blot!
 But the Union must prosper pure, happy and free
 When the Head of the Nation McClellan shall be.

Chorus.

3

We must put down all foes from within and without,
 Come they from the East, West, North or South,— Spoken,
 To each Law of the Nation we'll firmly adhere, Yes, all! including the "Morse Doctrine"
 That from childhood to age, we've been taught to revere!

Chorus.

4

Come with hands firm and true and with hearts in the cause,
 To strike for our loved Constitution and Laws;
 And the zeal for our Country no languor shall know,
 While we float the Old Banner and press the fierce foe!

Chorus.
