

Title:	Flag of Washington
Name(s):	Bishop, Henry R.
Resource Type:	notated music
Note(s):	no cover Music associated with the Union side
Subject(s):	United States--History--Songs and music Choruses, Secular (Women's voices, 2 parts) with piano McClellan, George Brinton, 1826-1885--Songs and music Flags--United States--Songs and music
URL	http://cweb2.loc.gov/diglib/ahas/loc.natlib.ahas.200001199

Deposited Sept. 30. 1861
Recorded Vol. 36, Page ~~509~~
510

To Maj Gen. Geo. H. McClellan.

No. 71.

THE FLAG OF WASHINGTON

A song for the people.

Music by

HENRY R. BISHOP.

The words of this song were written under peculiar circumstances. The name of the author is a secret.

BOSTON.

Published by Oliver Ditson & Co. 277 Washington St.

Moderato con Spirito.

1st. Ev - er the U - nion stands se - cure, And thro' all time it shall en - dure,
2^d Tell us what would the na - tions say, Should we see tame - ly torn a - way,
3^d Should Northern trea - son raise its head, Let living freemen strike it dead,
4th Oh! should our na - tions sun now set, How deep would be the vain re - gret,

Entered according to Act of Congress AD. 1861 by Oliver Ditson & Co. in the Clerk's Office of the District Court of Massachusetts. 21095

20194

M 1640
B

012

Its free flag waving, all tempests braving, Proudly our noble U - nion stands
 This flag that we, have sworn should be, The hope of all the hu - man race!

This land must be, from sea to sea, One mighty realm of Lib - er - ty
 Of free-doms band, in ev - 'ry land Of hope-ful hearts in ev - 'ry land!

Proudly our union stands. Tho' for a - while some stars are dim, Yet let us
 The hope of all the world! Let despots smile, let trait - ors sneer, That star - ry

One Great Republic - Free! There are im - mor - tal voi - ces heard By whose ap -
 Of hope - ful beating hearts! What curses loud and deep would rise, What tears would trust our cause to Him To God on high, who from the sky Looks down to flag shall still be dear, Where e'er it flies, true free-men rise And arm for peals our hearts are stirred Our Washing - ton! Our Jef - fer - son! Command us fill a mil - lion eyes, To think no more, on freedom's shore, Im - mor - tal

f p

210

Its free flag waving, all tempests braving, Proudly our noble U - nion stands
 This flag that we, have sworn should be, The hope of all the hu - man race!

This land must be, from sea to sea, One mighty realm of Lib - er - ty
 Of free-doms band, in ev - 'ry land Of hope-ful hearts in ev - 'ry land!

Proudly our union stands. Tho' for a - while some stars are dim, Yet let us
 The hope of all the world! Let despots smile, let trai - tors sneer, That star - ry

One Great Republic - Free! There are im - mor - tal voi - ces heard By whose ap -
 Of hope-ful beating hearts! What curses loud and deep would rise, What tears would trust our cause to Him To God on high, who from the sky Looks down to flag shall still be dear, Where e'er it flies, true free-men rise And arm for peals our hearts are stirred Our Washing - ton! Our Jef - fer - son! Command us fill a mil - lion eyes, To think no more, on freedom's shore, Im - mor - tal

f p