Lone Star of the West—Kentucky the brave—
Thy sons and thy daughters, oh! join in communion,
So long as the "star spangled banner shall wave,"
Be true to yourselves, and the flag of the Union.

The flag it is ours,
Let no foreign powers
Ever trample upon it, or take it;
Wherever we are,
In peace or in war,
Kentucky! oh! never forsake it.

How proudly it floats when unfurled in the air,
And the Eagle, in majesty, hovers above it,
It seems there's a charm in each stripe and each star,
The American flag! oh! how dearly we love it!

In peace or in war,
Our flag is still there—
We will never forsake it, nor never!
On land, or at sea,
Our motto shall be—
The American "Union Forever!"
