The musical score consists of five staves. The first two staves are vocal lines with lyrics. The third staff is a vocal line with lyrics. The fourth and fifth staves are piano accompaniment.

3.

The vacant fireside places
Have waited for them long;
The love-light lacks their faces,
The chorus waits their song;
A shadowy fear has haunted
The long deserted rooms;
But now our prayers are granted,
Our boys are coming home.

4.

O mother, calmly waiting
For that beloved son!
O sister, proudly dating
The victories he has won!
O maiden, softly humming
The love song while you roam—
Joy, joy, the boys are coming—
Our boys are coming home!

5.

And yet—O, keenest sorrow!
They're coming, but not all;
Full many a dark to-morrow
Shall wear its sable pall.
For thousands who are sleeping
Beneath the empurpled loam;
Woe! woe! for those we're weeping,
Who never will come home!

6.

O sad heart, hush the grieving;
Wait but a little while!
With hoping and believing
Thy woe and fear beguile.
Wait for the joyous meeting
Beyond the starry dome,
For there our boys are waiting
To bid us welcome home.

Music Sent by Mail to all Parts of the Country.—The postage on Sheet Music averages but one cent for each piece, and, therefore, persons at a distance can obtain it by mail much cheaper than by express. Dealers, teachers, and amateurs will do well to bear this in mind. In many instances they will find it a great convenience, as well as a saving of expense, to get their supplies in this way. Music Books can also be sent through the mail, at an expense of postage of one cent for each ounce weight.

All orders, whether large or small, strictly and promptly attended to.

S. BRAINARD & CO. keep always on hand all the publications of every other house in the Union, at wholesale and retail, at the same prices as if published by themselves; therefore, any piece of Music or Musical Work, published by any other publisher, or found in any catalogue, will be sent to any address in North America, postage paid, on receipt of the marked or selling price of the piece or book desired.
