Now Johnny Bull has gone to grass,
 To fatten up his calves, sir;
 He talks of sending a shilling a day
 Soldiers to the South, sir,
 But we licked him well in 1812,
 And we can lick him weller, oh, oh, oh!

CHORUS.

Now Johnny Bull may put on airs,
 But what care we for that, sir;
 He's been itching now, for some time
 To have a little spat, sir,
 But if he will but just keep cool
 Till we've settled our family quarrel, oh, oh, oh!

CHORUS.
