HARVARD STUDENT'S SONG.

DENKST DU DARAN.

With great feeling.

1. Remember
2. Remember
3. Remember
4. Look back no

ye the fateful gun that sounded To Sumter's walls from Charleston's towers ye, how, out of boy-hood leap-ing, Our gallant mates stood ready for the ye the pageants dim and sol- emn, Where Love and Grief have borne the funeral more! our time has come, my Brothers! In Fate's high roll our names are writ - ten shore! Remember ye how hearts in-dig-nant bounded, When our first fray! As new fledged ea - glets rise, with sudden sweeping, And met un - pall! The joy-less marching of the mustered column, With arms re - too: We fill the mournful gaps left bare by oth-ers, The ranks where dead came back from Bal-ti-more! The banner fell that ev-'ry breeze had scared the dazzling front of day. Our classic toil be-came inglorious.

 versed to Him who conquers all! Oh! give them back, thou bloody breast of Fear has nev-er bro-ken through. Look, ancient Walls, up- on our stern e-new the emblems shamed and shattered, And turn'd a front resolved to meet the foe.

 back with song the martial measure, That held its throb a - bove the cannon's roar.
 numbed and frosted out of sea - son, With whom the summer of our youth de - parts.
 eyes, and hearts of pure af - fec - tion, Light us re - solved to Vic - to - ry or Death!

Chorus.

Sop. mf dim.
 We rais'd a - new the emblems sham'd and shattered, And turn'd a front re-solved to meet the foe.

Alto. mf dim.
 We rais'd a - new the emblems sham'd and shattered, And turn'd a front re-solved to meet the foe.

Tenor. mf dim.
 We rais'd a - new the emblems sham'd and shattered, And turn'd a front re-solved to meet the foe.

Bass. mf dim.
 We rais'd a - new the emblems sham'd and shattered, And turn'd a front re-solved to meet the foe.
