This lottery has been authoriſed by the legiſlature of Virginia, for the laudable purpoſes of erecting a ſeminary of learning in or near the metropolis of this ſtate. With this view, it is contemplated to raiſe 20,000 dolls. and 2,500 dolls. in addition, for defraying the expences attendant on drawing the lottery. Citizens of the firſt reſpectability have been ſelected as truſtees, and they have pledged themſelves to uſe their utmoſt exertions to carry it into effect. The ſcheme has the advantage of giving to each adventurer a chance for ſome very large prizes, whilſt the proportion of prizes to blanks, is ſo great, as to invite the friends of the intended inſtitution to partake in the lottery, with very little riſque of their becoming loſers. The treaſurer of the ſtate is to be appointed to receive the money for the tickets as they are ſold, and to pay the amount of the prizes to the fortunate adventurers. It is believed that the above conſiderations will induce a rapid ſale of tickets, and the drawing will commence as ſoon as a ſufficient number ſhall be ſold to authoriſe it——which it is believed will be on the ſecond Monday in December next.

AN ACT
Providing for the eſtabliſhment of ſemi-annual Fairs.

BE it enacted by the First and Second Chambers of the City Council of Waſhington, That two FAIRS be held in every year within the city of Waſhington for the ſale of all kinds of cattle, goods wares, and merchandiſe, on the firſt Wedneſday's of May and November, under ſuch regulations as the Mayor may preſcribe, of which Fairs he ſhall make due notification.

In virtue of powers veſted in me by the above act, I do hereby order and direct that the Fairs authoriſed thereby ſhall be held on the public grounds appropriated in the plan of the city of Waſhington for the Mall on the ſouth ſide of the Tyber, extending from the Bridge at the Centre Market to the river Potomac, and that the continuance of ſaid Fairs ſhall be for three days ſucceſſively, viz. on the firſt Wedneſday, Thurſday and Friday in May and November.

ROBERT BRENT, Mayor.

September 14—

Purſuant to a decree from the Court of Chancery I ſhall ſell at Public Auction in the town of Piſcataway on Thurſday the firſt day of November next—

ALL the Real eſtate of Thomas Clagett, Eſq. late of Prince George's county deceaſed, containing in the whole about the quantity of eighteen hundred acres, of which that beautiful and highly improved Lot in the town of Piſcataway is a part. Theſe lands lye near the navigation of Potowmac river, the fartheſt is about three miles diſtant.—They will be divided into parcels to make it the more convenient to purchaſers. The whole is a good fertile ſoil, well adapted to the growth of corn, tobacco and ſmall grain. The purchaſer or purchaſers of the whole or of any part thereof to give bond with approved ſecurity to the truſtee for the payment of the purchaſe money with intereſt thereon in four equal annual inſtallments from the day of ſale and on the ratification of the ſale by the chancellor and on the receipt of the purchaſe money (and not before) the truſtee will convey the land to the purchaſer and his heirs free from all claim of the heirs of the ſaid Thomas Clagett.

American Printed goods.
Calicoes, Shawls, Pocket Handkerchiefs, &c. manufactured by the ſubſcribers near Baltimore, and ſold at No. 13 Calvert street.

TO remove that diſtruſt often felt reſpecting new undertakings, and ſo prejudicial to manufacturing attempts in America, they think it proper to obſerve, that nothing is wanting in the buſineſs to enable good artiſts to perform their work here as well as in Europe. That they have theſe artiſts; that two of the partners were bred to the buſineſs in a factory of the beſt repute carried on by their father, & long afterwards by themſelves. They truſt that while foreign goods are received without a queſtion, an unreaſonable ſuſpicion will not prevent their countrymen from giving that trial to their goods, which only can prove their value. Beſides a natural doubt, they know that certain intereſts, national as well as well as individual, will ſuggeſt objections to their undertaking. They have no difficulty in ſaying, that work of the like kind ſhall be as well executed here, as in other countries. The colors capable of being fixed, will be found as permanent; the cloths perhaps better ſubſtance, and the prices lower than of the imported cottons.

IN CHANCERY, September 17th, 1804.

Charles Carroll of Carollton, against
Aquila Beal and Grace his wife, Elizabeth Holliday and Margaret Holliday, which Grace, Elizabeth and Margaret are the only children and co-heireſſes of Leonard Holliday the younger, late of Prince George's county deceaſed.

THE object of this bill is to obtain a ſale of the real eſtate of the ſaid Leonard Holliday, for the payment of a debt due to the complainant upon the ground, that the perſonal eſtate has proved inſufficient.

The bill ſtates, that the ſaid Leonard Holliday in his life time, and at the time of his death was indebted to the complainant, on bond bearing date, October 25, 1783, with condition for the payment of 149 . 5s 3d. current money, with intereſt from the date; that judgment was obtained on the ſaid bond, in the General Court for the Weſtern Shore of Maryland, at May term, 1797, to be releaſed on the payment of the above ſum, with intereſt and coſts—That on January 25th, 1804, there was due on the ſaid judgment, for principal, intereſt, and coſts, after giving credit for all payments, the ſum of 258l. 12s. 0 1-2d. current money, no part of which has been paid, that the ſaid Leonard Holliday departed this life inteſtate, leaving a conſiderable Real Eſtate, and the defendants, Grace, Elizabeth, and Margaret his only children and co-heireſſes, that the perſonal eſtate of the ſaid Leonard is ſo far exhauſted, as to be inſufficient for the payment of the complainant's debt; that the defendant Aquila hath intermarried with the defendant Grace, and that all the defendants reſide in George Town in the Diſtrict of Columbia.

It is thereupon, and on the complainant's motion ordered, that he cauſe a copy of this order to be inſerted in the National Intelligencer once at leaſt in each of three ſucceſſive weeks, before the end of October next, to the intent, that the defendants may have notice of his application to this court, and of the ſubſtance and object of his bill, and may be warned to appear here in perſon or by a ſolicitor, before the laſt day of February next, to ſhew cauſe wherefore a decree ſhould not paſs as prayed.

50 Dollars reward,

STRAYED or ſtolen from the commons of Waſhington city, between Saturday and Monday the 7th and 9th of July, inſt. a pair of bright BAY HORSES, of the following deſcriptions:—One about fifteen and a half hands high over the ſhoulders, and about two inches lower over the hips, ſuppoſed to be eight years old, black mane and tail, mane on the right ſide, trots and canters, a ſtar in the forehead, both hind ancles white, and has partly on the inner ſide of each, uniformly placed, about one inch above the hoof a black ſpot of about three quarters of an inch diameter; no other ſtriking natural marks are recollected. This horſe is ſuppoſed to be three fourths Engliſh blooded; he is when in fleſh very handſome, and moves with eaſe and elegance. He is now much reduced in appearance by a long journey, his back ſomething injured by the ſaddle, and has old marks of ſimilar abuſe.

The other horſe is about fifteen and a hands high before, and the ſame behind, ſix years old, not ſo handſomely built in any reſpect as the other, but carries himſelf very well, trots hard, canters eaſy and racks a little, his mane and tail are likewiſe black; his mane thin and on the right ſide; left hind ancle white; has a ſtar in the forehead, and a ſnip in the noſe, moſtly inclined to and running into the left noſtril; a circular brand on the left ſhoulder, with a character in the center believed to be intended for an A. He is not ſo low in fleſh as the other, the new ſaddle marks are worſe, but he has few or no old ones, except a ſlight appearance of a former naval gall. They were ſhod all round.

If ſtolen the above reward will be paid on conviction of the thief; if ſtrayed and found within 20 miles of Waſhington city a reward of 20 dollars will be given, and if beyond that diſtance, 40, dolls. expences included, on their return to Phineas Bradley, Waſhington city, or Renner and Buſſard, George Town.

NOTICE.

BY Virtue of a decree of the high court of chancery of the ſtate of Maryland will be ſold at public auction at Caton's tavern in the city of Annapolis at twelve o'clock on Saturday the twenty ninth day of the preſent month, the lot of ground now in the occupation of Wm. Brown of the city of Annapolis. This lot begins at the interſection of North Eaſt ſtreet and Scotch ſtreet, and bounds on Scotch ſtreet one hundred and ſeventy five and an half feet, then with a line parallel with North Eaſt ſtreet to the Severn river, then bounding on and with the river to North Eaſt ſtreet and then with N. Eaſt Street to the beginning. The improvements are a large convenient brick dwelling houſe beautifully ſituated on the river, kitchen and out houſes of different kinds and a pump of excellent water. Any further deſcription is thought unneceſſary as perſons who are diſpoſed to purchaſe, will probably make themſelves acquainted with the property previous to the day of ſale. The terms of ſale are that the purchaſer ſhall give bond with ſecurity to be approved by the truſtee for paying the purchaſe money with intereſt within ſix months from the day of ſale.
