mid have already conſidered themſelves as in the thickeſt battle. The fainteſt proſpect of a miſunderſtanding with Spain was too precious a hope of retrieving their loſt fortunes, not to be ſeized with eagerneſs, and puſhed with vehemence. Again, however, the evil genius of truth croſſes their path, and we are aſſured from the higheſt authority, an authority which no one will dare to diſpute, that a reaſonable expectation is entertained that the explanations already made to the Court of Madrid will reſtore the diſpoſitions and views which dictated the Convention. That indeed, which it had been ſurmiſed, would be enforced at the cannon's mouth, is, we find, at this moment, and has been all along the ſubject of amicable diſcuſſion. Whether then we judge from the exiſting ſtate of the negociations, from the reaſon of things, or from the iſſue of paſt events intimately connected with this tranſaction, we have a right to indulge the expectation of the ſame happy, and honorable reſult in this as in the other inſtance.

On the 5th inſt. an elector for nineteen electors of Preſident and Vice-Preſident choſen by a general ticket, and of ſeventeen repreſentatives to Congreſs choſen in diſtinct tickets, took place. We do not yet poſſeſs ſufficient materials to juſtify the expreſſion of any decided opinion of the general iſſue of this election. But we have enough to animate expectation. There remains not a doubt, that if republicaniſm has not triumphed, it has, at any rate, made a bold and vigorous ſtand; a ſtand worthy of the friends of liberty, and the forerunner of early ſucceſs. We have, it is true, to lament the loſs of Dr. Euſtis, who has ſo handſomely and ably maintained the intereſts of his conſtituents. But on the other hand, there are the moſt flattering proſpects of ſeveral changes of federal for republican characters in the other diſtricts, and above all the chance of gaining the whole electoral ticket.

Majority for M. QUINCY, 144.

The only towns belonging to this Diſtrict which have not been heard from are Bingham and Hull.

In Hingham, in Nov. 1802, Dr. EUSTIS had 85 votes, and the gentleman oppoſed to him 79.—In April laſt Gov. STRONG had 99, Mr. SULLIVAN 60. In Hull, in 1802, 9 votes, (the whole number then given) were for Mr. E.—In April laſt, we believe an unanimous federal vote was given in that town.

It is certain, that the Hon. JOSIAH QUINCY, is choſen to repreſent the Diſtrict of Suffolk in the Ninth Congreſs.

"We herewith forward you a liſt of the votes given in this town. The uſual number of federal votes here for three years paſt has been from 80 to 90. This year there is an increaſe from 30 to 40. Mr. Seaver had not ſo large a majority, as the Democratic Electoral Ticket by 44."

From BRAINTREE.

"I have the pleaſure to inform you that the inhabitants of this town appear diſpoſed to re-eſtabliſh its character for Federal Republicaniſm. We have this day given THOMAS B. ADAMS, Eſq. 78 votes, a majority of 4.

WORCESTER, November 7.
THE ELECTION.

In the county of Worceſter has terminated more favorably for the republican cauſe, than our moſt ſanguine expectations had preſaged. We have no deſire to raiſe the expectations of our republican brethren above the level of ſober probability. But, we venture to ſay, that there is a reaſonable chance for the election of EDWARD BANGS, Eſq. as repreſentative to Congreſs for the ſouth diſtrict of this county. One thing is certain, that the republican cauſe has progreſſed with unprecedented rapidity. There is ſcarcely a town from which we have heard, in which the event of the election has not afforded occaſion for triumph to the friends of the adminiſtration; and not a ſingle town, in which federaliſm has encreaſed. Our readers will ſee that the aggregate of the votes for the ſouth diſtrict leaves a majority of 77 for Mr. Bangs.

The towns in this diſtrict to be heard from are New Braintree, Weſtern, Uxbridge, Douglaſs, and Milford. In order to enable our readers to form an opinion of the progreſs of true principles, in this part of the commonwealth, we have inſerted a liſt of the votes as they ſtood in April laſt. Of the towns marked thus *, we were not able to obtain the returns of the laſt election.—We have therefore ſubſtituted the returns of the Gubernatorial election of 1802.

We congratulate our republican friends on the great accretion of ſtrength to their cauſe. We have not time to be particular in our remarks; but we cannot avoid mentioning the unprecedented increaſe of republicaniſm in Charlton, Brookfield, Weſtborough, & Hubbardſton, as peculiarly flattering.

The following is the liſt of votes for Electors, ſo far as we have obtained them. The votes for Repreſentatives nearly correſpond with thoſe for Electors. We have not room to inſert them.

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 12.

The petitions of Charles Miriſie, of Charles Hyde and of Ezekiel Harris were ſeverally referred to the committee of claims.

Dr. Mitchill preſented a petition from the ſlate companies of New York and Dutcheſs counties, praying as an encouragement to their quarries that an additional duty may be laid upon that article when imported from Wales or other foreign parts.

The houſe reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole on the ſtate of the Union.

Mr. Dawſon in the chair.

Mr. J. Randolph ſubmitted ſeven reſolutions, which were agreed to, and afterwards adopted by the houſe, as follows:

1. Reſolved, That ſo much of the meſſage of the Preſident of the United States as relates to the reſtraining of our merchant veſſels arming themſelves without authority, and attempting to force a commerce into certain ports and countries in defiance of the laws of thoſe countries, be referred to a ſelect committee.

2. Reſolved, That ſo much, &c. as relates to an amelioration of the form of government of the territory of Louiſiana, be referred to a ſelect committee.

3. Reſolved, That ſo much, &c. as recommends an enlargement of the capital employed in commerce with the Indian tribes, be referred to a ſelect committee.

4. Reſolved, That ſo much, &c. as relates to the defence and ſecurity of our ports and harbours, and ſupporting within our waters the authority of the laws, be referred to a ſelect committee.

5. Reſolved, That ſo much, &c. as relates to the improvements of the militia ſyſtem of the United States, be referred to a ſelect committee.

6. Reſolved, That ſo much, &c. as relates to the inconvenience which ariſes from the diſtance to which, under exiſting laws prizes captured from the corſairs of Tripoli, muſt be brought for adjudication, be referred to a ſelect committee.

7. Reſolved, That ſo much, &c. as relates to the lead mines of Louiſiana, be referred to the committee of commerce and manufactures.

Mr. Thompſon preſented a petition from Mr. Rawls, ſtating that he had purchaſed of the United States a tract of land in the ſtate of Ohio, under an impreſſion that a ſtream of water ſufficient for a mill paſſed through the ſame, but on ſurvey it appeared to paſs thro' the adjoining tract, and he thereupon prays to be allowed to cut a canal from the ſame, to enable him to procure water for a mill, according to his original intention. Referred to a ſelect committee.

The Speaker laid before the houſe a letter from Mr. Thomas Claxton, doorkeeper of the houſe of Repreſentatives of the United States, written in his official capacity, ſtating that "at the requeſt of one of the inhabitants of the city, the chaplain to the Senate, after he had performed divine ſervice in the chamber of the houſe of Repreſentatives in the forenoon, gave notice that in the afternoon a ſtranger would preach in the ſame room, which is a thing altogether unuſual—This notice was given without conſulting the Speaker, or being mentioned to any other officer of the houſe. Believing it to be a precedent which might hereafter lead to many inconveniences, he oppoſed the meaſure, &c. In taking this ſtep he unfortunately gave umbrage to ſome of the gentlemen belonging to the houſe. This circumſtance induced him to hope that the Speaker would eſtabliſh ſome regulation on this point, or bring the matter before the houſe for its deciſion.

Mr. Speaker obſerved that he had never exerciſed any authority on this ſubject—Whenever he had been applied to for leave to preach in that room he had uniformly anſwered that he had no objection.

On motion, the letter was referred to a committee of three.

Mr. J. Clay reported that the committee appointed to wait upon the Preſident on the ſubject of capt. Decatur and the ketch Intrepid, had performed that ſervice, and received for anſwer that he would cauſe the requeſt of the houſe to be complied with.

Mr. J. Randolph informed the Houſe that the committee of Ways and Means had received a communication from the Treaſury department, ſtating that the appropriation of 50,000 dolls. for carrying into effect the ſeventh article of the Britiſh treaty had not been ſufficient to diſcharge the ſecond inſtallment upon all the awards made in purſuance thereof, and ſuggeſting the propriety of making as early as poſſible a further appropriation for that object. The ſecretary of ſtate eſtimated the amount unpaid at 60,000 dolls. and that in order to prevent any diſappointment it would be eligible to make the appropriation 70,000.—Mr. R. thereupon moved that the committee of Ways and Means have leave to report a bill on this ſubject—leave being granted,

Mr. J. R. reported a bill accordingly, which was read a firſt and ſecond time, and referred to a committee of the whole to morrow.

Mr. Griswold ſtated that ſome inconvenience had been felt by ſome of the merchants of the Atlantic ports in making ſhipments to New-Orleans, as they were not authoriſed to obtain drawbacks on a reſhipment from that port to a foreign country; heretofore New-Orleans had been a depot from which many foreign articles were ſhipped to the French, Spaniſh, and even Britiſh colonies and iſlands, a commerce that had been very productive. He wiſhed if there was no ſolid objection to it that the uſual courſe of trade might be continued. He therefore moved the following reſolution.

Reſolved, That the committee of Commerce and Manufactures be inſtructed to enquire into the expediency of allowing, under proper regulations, a drawback of duties on goods wares and merchandiſe, imported into the port of New Orleans from any port of the United States, and from thence exported to any foreign port or place, and that the committee report by bill or otherwiſe.

The reſolution was carried nem. con.
