SUBMIT TO THE PUBLIC THE FOLLOWING

PROPOSALS,

FOR PUBLISHING AT ST. LOUIS,

IN THE

LOUISIANA TERRITORY,

A

WEEKLY NEWSPAPER

MISSOURI CORRESPONDENT,

AND

ILLINOIS GAZETTE.

PREFATORY to undertaking the Editorial labors of a Newſpaper, we preſume to offer the following remarks:

While the United States by their rapid progreſs in population, agriculture, commerce and the arts, are becoming every day more and more powerful and opulent, the limits of our weſtern ſettlements are widely extending themſelves far beyond our ancient boundaries, even to a very great length into our newly acquired territories, beyond the utmoſt expectation of the moſt ſanguine of our fellow-citizens. Since the important acquiſition of Louiſiana, compriſing a tract of the fineſt country on the face of the globe—embracing almoſt every climate between the north and ſouth poles—a tract of country more extenſive than all the United States beſides, and capable of affording ſubſiſtence to more people than all the continent of Europe; with all the neceſſaries, and almoſt all the luxuries that can poſſibly be conceived of. We conſider this a rational anticipation, entirely unconnected with any thing prophetic or viſionary. There are other conſiderations which operate powerfully upon our minds, and tend abſolutely to induce in us a belief, of the growing conſequence of the region in queſtion; the citizens of which have a guarantee of all the rights of the citizens of the United States in the conſtitution; and equally entitled to enjoy the rights and ſecurity of life, liberty, property, and reputation, as well from the invaſion of any foreign nation, as from Indian wars. Although far removed from the preſent greateſt population of the United States, by the compact of federal union, the phyſical force and power of the nation muſt be extended to the government and people, for their protection forever, or at leaſt ſo long as the union exiſts. In this view of the ſubject we are compelled to believe, that the period is not far diſtant, when the face of this healthy and beautiful country, will be covered with a numerous population, and that ſeminaries of learning will appear throughout the whole—ſo that the arts and ſciences may find their way thither, without the trouble, labor and expence, of importation from abroad. It is believed that no country has yet been diſcovered, which affords ſuch great temptations to emigrants from the old ſettled ſtates and foreign countries, as the one of which we are now ſpeaking.

The MISSOURI CORRESPONDENT & ILLINOIS GAZETTE, will always be open for the expoſition of public meaſures. In the diſcuſſion of local queſtions, the Editors will know no party, but will give place to all eſſays that are couched in decent and correct language. Its columns will contain a ſummary of the acts and proceedings of Congreſs during and after their ſeſſion; and the proceedings of the Legiſlatures of Louiſiana and Indiana territories in detail—together with a due portion of political, hiſtorical, philoſophical, moral, poetical and amuſing eſſays.

Ever mindful of the reſpect due to a Gazette intended for circulation among a numerous, virtuous and independent people, whoſe generous patronage we hope to merit and receive—in return for which, it will be our endeavor to become uſeful members of the community, and cultivate a friendly intercourſe with all our patrons.

We ſhall always in an independent manner keep in mind our conſtitutional guarantee—the Liberty of the Preſs—remembering, too, at the ſame time that the great Monteſquieu in his Spirit of Laws has declared, that, "Liberty without control is licentiouſneſs."

CONDITIONS.

1. It ſhall be printed weekly on the day which ſhall be found beſt adapted, to the purpoſe of affording the earlieſt intelligence, and the moſt ſpeedy diſtribution of the papers.

2. It ſhall be printed on a royal ſheet, in folio, and on a good type.

3. Subſcriptions; price THREE DOLLARS per annum paid in advance, or promiſſory notes for Four Dollars at the expiration of the year.

4. Advertiſements of no more length than breadth, will be inſerted three weeks, for one dollar and fifty cents for each continuance, thirty ſeven and a half cents—Thoſe who wiſh their advertiſements in the French language, will be accommodated.
