"Sixteen to one," John would not take,
Such dollars are illegal,
And Uncle Sam, would blush to hear,
A slur cast on our Eagle,
For silver's cross will crucify,
The poor of every Nation,
While silver thorns on labor's brow
Will paralyze Creation.

Chorus.

5.

Next day when Farmer Brown awoke,
Delusions all had faded,
That silver speech by Billy Bryan,
Had passed by him unaided,
But deep within he made a vow,
To join the ranks forever,
Of those who would not see mankind,
Stretched on cross of silver.

Chorus.
