PUBLIC NOTICE

Is hereby given to all persons who have any demands against Peter Forbis an insolvent debtor, that the subscriber, assignee of the said Peter, will attend at the House of John Baird, innkeeper, in the town of Hackensack, on Monday the 1st day of August next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of examining and ascertaining the debts due from the said Peter to such of his creditors as shall then and there attend and exhibit their demands. The subscriber will also attend at the place aforesaid on Thursday the 1st day of September next at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of making a division agreeably to law, of all such money as shall then have come to his hands, of the estate of the said Peter, of which those concerned will please to take notice.

WILLIAM A. DE PEYSTER.
Hackensack N. J. Feb. 10th, 1808.

BY virtue of a power of attorney to me given by George N. Thomas, I will offer for sale, on Tuesday 8th day of March next, if fair, and if not, the first fair day thereafter, at the Bridge across the Eastern Branch, and on the south side of the Bridge, three NEGRO MEN, for cash. These Negroes are young and healthy, and one of them is an excellent carpenter.

A BRICK HOUSE AND LOT FOR SALE.

ON Monday the 8th day of February next, if fair, if not the next fair day, will be exposed to public sale on the premises at 4 o'clock in the evening, part of Lot No. 6, in square No. 141, in this city, fronting 16 feet 9 inches on North G street, and running back 133 feet, with the improvements thereon, consisting of a convenient two story Brick House and enclosure. The Lot was leased to the former tenant for a term of 99 years at the rent of 35 dollars per annum, and the benefit of a covenant to purchase the fee simple thereof.

On default of payment of three years rent, the subscriber has been put in possession of the premises, according to the law in such cases provided; for which, and accruing expences, it will be sold, subject to the conditions of the former case, and a new lease executed to the purchaser on complying with the terms of sale. Being in the vicinity of the public offices, and in a thick settled genteel neighborhood, it would be an eligible situation for a gentleman doing business in either of the departments. The premises may be viewed and the papers seen by applying to Thomas Herty, prior to the day of sale.

JOSEPH NOURSE.

☞ Terms of sale, a negociable note with an approved endorser, payable 60 days after date.

The Sale of the above Property is postponed until Monday the 14th day of March next, when it will be offered for sale at the hour and place above-mentioned

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

WHEREAS by the first article of the terms and conditions declared by the President of the United States on the 17th day of October 1791 for regulating the materials and manner of buildings and improvements on the lots in the city of Washington, it is provided, "that the outer and party walls of all houses in the said city shall be built of brick or stone," and by the third article of the same terms and conditions, it is declared, "that the wall of no house shall be higher than forty feet to the roof in any part of the city, nor shall any be lower than thirty-five feet on any of the avenues," and whereas the above recited articles were found to impede the settlement in the city, of mechanics and others whose circumstance did not admit of erecting houses authorised by the said regulations, for which cause the operation of the said articles has been suspended by several acts of the President of the United States, from the fifth day of June 1796 to this day, and beneficial effects arising from such suspensions having been experienced, it is deemed proper to revive and continue the same, with the exceptions hereafter mentioned:

Wherefore, I Thomas Jefferson, President of the United States, do declare, That the first and third articles above recited shall be, and the same hereby are suspended until the 1st day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and nine, and that all houses which shall be erected in the city of Washington previous to the said first day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and nine, conformable in other respects to the regulations aforesaid shall be considered as lawfully erected, except that no wooden house, covering more than three hundred and twenty square feet, or higher than twelve feet from the sill to the eve shall be erected, nor shall any such house be placed within twenty-four feet of a brick or stone house.

Given under my hand, the first day of January in the year one thousand eight hundred and eight.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

WHEREAS by the act, entitled "An act making provision for the disposal of the public Lands situated between the United States Military Tract, and the Connecticut Reserve, and for other purposes," it was enacted that for the disposal of the lands of the United States lying on the Ohio river, between the Cincinnati and Vincennes district, a Land Office should be established at Jeffersonville. And it was further enacted, that the lands aforesaid, with the exception of certain tracts, therein excepted, be offered for sale to the highest bidder at the place aforesaid, on such day or days, as shall by a public Proclamation of the President of the United States, be designated for that purpose, in tracts of the same size, & on the same terms & conditions as are provided for the lands North of the river Ohio, and above the mouth of Kentucky river.

Wherefore, I, Thomas Jefferson, President of the United States, in conformity with the provisions of the act before recited, Do hereby declare and make known, that sales shall be held at Jeffersonville in the Indiana Territory for the disposal of the above mentioned lands, to commence on the second Monday of April, one thousand eight hundred and eight, and continue for and during the six following weeks.

Given under my hand the nineteenth day of November one thousand eight hundred and seven.

Treasury Department, Register's Office, June 5th 1807.

Notice is hereby given;

THAT, in conformity with the provision of the act supplementary to the act, entituled "An act making provision for the redemption of the whole of the public debt of the United States," books will be opened at the Treaſury on the firſt day of July next, to continue open until the ſeventeenth day of March, 1808, incluſively, the fourteen laſt days of each quarter excepted, for the purpoſe of receiving ſubſcriptions for ſuch parts of the old ſix per cent. deferred ſix per cent. and three per cent. ſtocks, as may, on the day of ſubſcription ſtand on the books of the treaſury.

Thoſe proprietors of the old ſix per cent. and deferred ſtocks, who may ſubſcribe, will receive in lieu thereof a new ſix per cent. ſtock, equal to the unredeemed amount of the ſtock ſurrendered, redeemable at the pleaſure of the United States, under a proviſo however, that no reimburſement ſhall be made except for the whole amount of any ſuch new certificate of ſtock, nor till after ſix months previous notice; and the proprietors of the three per cent. ſtock who may ſubſcribe, will receive in lieu thereof, a ſix per cent ſtock, equal to ſixty-five per cent. of the amount of three per cent ſurrendered, redeemable in the ſame manner as the new ſix per cent. abovementioned, but not reimburſable however, without the aſſent of the holders, until after the whole of the new ſix per cent. (given in exchange for old ſix or deferred as above mentioned,) as well as the whole of the eight per cent ſtock of the United States, ſhall have been reimburſed. It is alſo provided that in every reimburſement which may take place, a preference will be given to thoſe creditors who may notify their wiſh to be reimburſed; and that if the applications to that effect ſhall at any time either exceed or fall ſhort of the ſum then applicable to that purpoſe, the priority of payment ſhall, ſo far as may be neceſſary, be determined by lot.

The preſent ſtockholders who reſide in any part of Europe and may aſſent to that modification, may, at their option, receive the intereſt accruing on the new ſtock, either in the United States as heretofore, or in London, or Amſterdam, at par: in which laſt caſe, the intereſt will be paid there by the bankers of the United States, ſix months ſubſequent to the day on which the ſame would be payable in the United States and ſubject to no variation; nor to any other deduction than a commiſſion to the bankers, of one half per cent on the intereſt thus paid.

JOSEPH NOURSE, Reg. of the Treaſury

NOTE—Proprietors of 1000 dollars nominal ſix per cent ſtock, ſubſcribed before the 1ſt October, 1807, will be entitled to receive,

	649 61	of new ſix

If ſubſcribed between the 1ſt Oct and 31ſt Dec. 1807,	853 62	——
Between the 1ſt Jan. and 17th March 1808,	831 42	——

Being the unredeemed amount of the old ſtock on the 1ſt July, and October 1807, and 1ſt January 1808 reſpectively.

Proprietors of 1000 dollars three per cent. ſtock, will be entitled to receive 650 dollars of new ſix.

June 8—w9m.

I WISH to SELL about 25 acres of LAND, adjoining George-town, with the following improvements: a new framed dwelling 40 feet cellar under the whole, 5 rooms and a piazza on the first floor, stone kitchen 18 by 24, a wash house 14 by 16, smoke house, stable and carriage house, also, paled yard and garden, there are a number of young fruit trees beginning to bear, and 6 or 7 acres in clover. I believe this place as healthy as the Allighany mountains, and perhaps second to none for a country seat; for although about three quarters of a mile from Georgetown market, yet by reason of a deep valley between it and town it is rendered very private; and the road good; the prospect commanding and variegated.

As I wish to improve near the Rope Walk, I would sell this place low.

RICHD. PARROTT.

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

WHEREAS by the act, entitled, "An act making provision for the disposal of the Public Lands, situated between the United States Military Tract, and the Connecticut reserve, and for other purposes," it was enacted that for the disposal of the Lands of the United States, situated between the United States Military Tract, and the Connecticut Reserve, a Land Office should be established at such place, as the President of the United States might direct: And it was further enacted, that the lands aforesaid with the exception of certain tracts therein excepted, be offered for sale to the highest bidder at the place aforesaid, on such day or days, as shall by a public proclamation of the President of the United States be designated for that purpose, in tracts of the same size, and on the same terms and conditions as are provided for the lands North of the river Ohio, and above the mouth of Kentucky river.

Wherefore, I, Thomas Jefferson, President of the United States, in conformity with the provisions of the act before recited, Do hereby declare and make known, that sales shall be held at Canton in the state of Ohio, for the disposal of the above mentioned lands, to commence on the second Monday of May, one thousand eight hundred and eight, and continue for and during the six following weeks.

Given under my hand the nineteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and seven.
