FOR SALE OR RENT,

THE Hotel at present occupied by P. D. STELLE. The advantages of this situation are so well known, that it is useless to say more of it—it is convenient to the Capitol, is calculated for a large establishment, with stablage for 40 or 50 horses. The Bridge, rapidly progressing over the Potomac, with the turnpike road to Alexandria, also in great forwardness, will add to the many advantages this situation possesses. To a man qualified to carry on such an establishment, no situation can insure a more certain and rapid fortune. Occupation can be had any day before the first of October next. CIRCUIT COURT, JUNE TERM, 1808.

Solomon Davis, Ex'r. of Solomon Simpson, deceased—complainant, against
Abiel Jenners and Deborah his wife and Ferdinando Fairfax——Defendants.

THE bill states that on the thirtieth day of October 1799 the said Solomon Simpson loaned to the said Abiel Jenners, the sum of two thousand six hundred and fifty dollars, and for securing the repayment thereof to said Simpson with interest on or before the first day of November 1801, the said Jenners and the said Deborah his wife by deed of indenture bearing date on the day and year aforesaid, mortgaged to the said Simpson, one undivided sixth part of a tract or parcel of land in the city of Washington, called "Knock"—that the said sum of money and interest was never paid to the said Simpson in his life time, nor since his death to the said Davis who is the executor of the last will and testament of said Simpson—that upon a division of said tract of land, certain lots of ground in the city of Washington were alloted and conveyed to the said Jenners and wife, as the sixth part thereof—that the said Jenners and wife on or about the 2nd day of January 1802 conveyed said lots to the said Ferdinando Fairfax in fee simple who now claims the same under said conveyance.

The object of the bill is to foreclose said mortgage and to obtain a decree for the sale of said lots and which are particularly mentioned and described in said bill—

The bill further states, that the said Abiel Jenners and Deborah his wife and the said Ferdinando Fairfax do not reside within the district of Columbia, & that they are not within the limited jurisdiction of this court.

It is thereupon on motion of the said complainant, ordered that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted in the National Intelligencer once a week for three successive weeks before the fourth Monday of December next; to the end that the said Abiel Jenners and Deborah his wife and the said Ferdinando Fairfax may have notice of the object of this bill and that they may be warned to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the said fourth Monday of December next, to shew cause if any they have why a decree should not pass as prayed.

By order,

PROPOSAL,

By JOSEPH MILLIGAN,
George Town,
For publishing by Subscription,

ADELINE MOWBRAY;
OR
THE MOTHER & DAUGHTER.

IN TWO VOLUMES.

By MRS OPIE.

CUSTOM, and perhaps propriety, have rendered it necessary to bespeak the favorable opinion of the public to a new book; but the writings of Mrs. Opie have long held such an undisputed claim to excellence, that nothing more seems necessary than to point out the leading object of the present very interesting tale, to recommend it to general patronage.

Those who have attentively read the writings of Mr. Godwin, well know, that however correct his abstract positions, and however logical his deductions may be—still they are, in many instances, by no means suited to the actual state of society. His opinions on the matrimonial engagement would, if generally adopted, infallibly destroy those bonds which are at once the most efficacious restraint upon licentious passion, and the best, nay the only security for domestic happiness. To counteract his fatal theory appears to be the principal design of the work now offered—in which the characters are so well supported, the incidents arise so naturally from the situations in which they are placed, the reasoning is so perfectly just, the whole narrative so beautifully pathetic, and the impression which it is calculated to produce on every ingenuous mind, so favorable to the cause of morality, that the publisher confidently anticipates its meeting the same universal applause in this country which it obtained in England.

CONDITIONS.

To those who may subscribe before the first of October next, the price will be seventy-cents per volume, in boards, after which it will be advanced to eighty-seven and a half cents per volume.
