Graphic Section
Part Five

New York Tribune

Graphic Section
November 9, 1919

The Prince of Wales

in full ceremonial robes

from a painting by

ADRIAAN M. deGROOT

HIS Royal Highness Edward Albert Christian George Andrew Patrick David, Earl of Chester, Duke of Cornwall, Duke of Rothesay, Earl of Garrick, Baron of Renfrew, Earl of Dublin, Lord of the Isles and Great Steward of Scotland—the Prince of Wales. Garbed in full ceremonial robes and decorated with insignia of the various orders with which he has been invested, this colorful portrait of the Prince is in striking contrast to the manly figure of England's twenty-five-year-old heir to the throne, so familiarly pictured the past few months in modest civilian, sports or military attire. The Prince on his triumphant tour of Canada has gained widespread respect and popularity through his unassuming, democratic manner and his frank interest in the everyday affairs of his people.

Unfolded flat copy of the Colorgraphic Section, admirably suited for framing, will be mailed postpaid on receipt of 25 cents; three copies for 50 cents.