HYMN SUNG AT THE MORNING OFFERING OF INCENSE

King of Peace, give to us Thy Peace; confirm to us Thy Peace: forgive to us our sins.

Scatter the enemies of the Church: establish her that she may not be moved for ever.

Emmanuel, our God, is in our midst now, in the glory of His Father and the Holy Spirit.

May He bless us all; may He purify our hearts; may He heal the sicknesses of our souls and our bodies.

We worship Thee, O Christ, with Thy Good Father and the Holy Spirit, for Thou hast come, Thou hast saved us. Have mercy upon us.

Holy Communion Hymn

Truly blessed art Thou with Thy Good Father and the Holy Spirit, for Thou hast come, Thou hast saved us.

The Bread of Life Which came down to us from heaven. God gave life to the world.

Thou, also, Mary didst bear in thy womb the Rational Manna Which came forth from God.

Thou didst bear Him without stain. He gave to us His Body and His Precious Blood: we live for ever.

The Cherubim rise up before Thee and the Seraphim are unable to behold Thee.

We behold Thee daily upon the altar. We receive of Thy Body and Thy Precious Blood.

Wherefore we exalt thee[1] worthily with prophetic hymnology.

For many noble things were said concerning thee[1], the Holy City of the Great King.

We pray and we beseech that we may obtain mercy through thy[2] intercession with the Lover of man.

Response sung at the Sanctus in the Divine Liturgy

Lord God of hosts, turn and look down from heaven: behold and visit this vine: establish and strengthen that which Thy right hand hath planted.

Alleluia. Alleluia. Alleluia

Bless the sowings and the pastures.

May Thy mercy and Thy peace be a wall to Thy people.

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord of Sabaoth. Full is the Heaven and the earth of Thy holy glory.
