wildwood, And a - - gain a boy I seem In fan - cy gen-tle Mem'ry paints your ev - ry look. Since then I've see my dear old mother Smoothing o'er my locks of roamed o'er plain and ocean With no fixed a - bi - ding gold, I hear my fath - - er, sis - ter, brother As in place But oh! my heart, with fond e - - motion Still re-hap py days of old.

calls my mother's face. A- las, the fleet - ing dream has vanished, Oh, what's to me the love of others! I'll ne'er forget, Tho' far I'm banish'd, There's no love like the dear old Mothers!
