"Cue."

Martha Graham, in a brief interval at the National, proves again the full extent of her extraordinary genius as a mime and dancer, with a gift for drollery hitherto unsuspected. There is stinging realism and superb artistry in her work.

May 20. 1944.