NEW YORK, N. Y.
HERALD TRIBUNE

OCT 8 - 1944

Another high point in this crowded fall season will be the appearance of Martha Graham and her company in the new dances composed to specially commissioned scores by Aaron Copland, Paul Hindemith and Darius Milhaud. These works (as yet untitled) will be first given in Washington Oct. 30 at the festival in honor of Mrs. Coolidge's 80th birthday. They are to be seen here in November, if a theater can be found.