N.Y. Times March 3, 1947

DANCE SEASON EXTENDED

Martha Graham to Give Four More Performances This Week

Martha Graham's dance season at the Ziegfeld Theatre, which was to have ended with last night's performance, will be extended by four more performances, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings and Saturday afternoon. The feature of these final presentations will be the revival of "Primitive Mysteries," with music by Louis Horst, first presented in 1931. Eight dancers will be added to the company for this work.

The repertory for the additional performances follows:

Thursday — "El Penitente," "Primitive Mysteries," "Cave of the Heart," "Punch and the Judy." Friday — "Appalachian Spring," "Errand Into the Maze," "Primitive Mysteries," "Letter to the World." Saturday matinee — "El Penitente," "Dark Meadow," "Stephen Acrobat," "Every Soul Is a Circus." Saturday evening— "Primitive Mysteries," "Herodiade," "Cave of the Heart," "Letter to the World."