

The total fees of this case, upon one single information, demanded by Farewell aforesaid, amount to about a hundred and one pound seventeen shillings, who demanded of us singly, about sixteen pound nineteen shillings sixpence, the cost of prosecution; the fines added make up this, viz. two hundred eighty and six pounds seventeen shillings, money. Summa Totalis £286. 17s.

To all which we may add a large account of other fees of messengers, prison charges, money for bonds and transcript of records, exhausted by those ill men, one way and another, to the value of three or four-score pounds, besides our expense of time and imprisonment.

We judge the total charge for one case and trial, under one single information, involving us six men abovesaid in expense of time and monies of us and our relations, for our necessary succour and support, to amount to more, but no less, than £400 money.

Too tedious to illustrate more amply at this time, and so we conclude. John Wise; John Andrews, senior; William Goodhue, junior; Thomas French; these four persons named, and Robert Kinsman.

These four persons first named appeared the twentieth day of December, and Robert Kinsman appeared the one and twentieth day of December, 1689, and gave in their testimony upon their oath before me,
