Dear Mr. Kaye:

At the request of the President of the United States, I am inviting you to attend a National Conference on "The Foreign Aspects of U. S. National Security" to be held in Washigton on February 25.

The purpose of this nonpartisan Conference is to discuss the requirements of U. S. foreign econoic olicy--with emphasis on partnership with the developing nations of the Free World--and then to explore eans of onveying to our itizens a fuller flow of inormation about these requirements.

The Conference will take place at the Statler Hotel in Washington, D. C., commencing at 9:30 a.m., and will conclude with a dinner meeting at which the President of the United States wil be the speaker.

The President's request for such a meetig of distinguished private ciizens nd leaders of nationl organiations epresents a call to action on a atter of utmost national imortance. I am confident that the responsible leaders of the American community ill wholeheartedly respond.

It would be helpful in acilitating Conference arrangements if ou ould send your response to e by wie nd then orward the enclosed card.

Very sincerely yours,

Eric Johnston
