IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE LIBRARY OF CONGRESS

(TO BE) MARRIED

IRVING FIELDS, composer, arranger and leader of the Irving Fields Trio, will be (was) married to Jane Ferdinand Sunday, August 26th at the Starlight Roof of the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, New York.

Fields is noted for composing "Take Her To Jamaica", "Managua, Nicaragua" and "Miami Beach Rhumba" and has played top spots throughout the nation.

Miss Ferdinand, a non-professional, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Ferdinand of Forest Hills, N. Y.

###

Vocalovely Toni Arden, last seen on the CBS-TV "Songs For Sale", really hits the big time on August 29th. The Columbia Recording artist opens at the New York Paramount Theater and will headline the show there. Toni's sincere and impassioned delivery makes her a girl to watch on the television horizon.

###

Spike Jones, the Madman of Music, goes "live" again on video September 16th, when he comes to New York to do the "Colgate Comedy Hour". Jones receives a fabulous $40,000. per appearance for doing the show and his previous stint out-Hoopered opposition Ed Sullivan.

###

Danny Kaye will be joined by none other than Groucho Marx, Jimmy Durante and Jane Wyman in his latest record titled, "How Do You Do And Shake Hands", due out soon.

DISC DIALOGUE

Toni Arden, who opens at the N. Y. Paramount on 8/29, offers charming proof of her vocal versatility with the torchy ballad of "I'll Hold You In My Heart" and the bounce of "If You Turn Me Down"...There is nothing so serious that we can't appreciate it more by having a chuckle or two about it. Proof? Why, "Too Young" by Spike Jones...Danny Kaye should have even more luck with the "Alice In Wonderland" music as he adds the "Shake Hands" ditty to his "I'm Late"...And the score from "Alice" wouldn't be complete without Helen Grayco's "'Twas Brillig" ...The entertainment industry as well as his many fans extend congratulations to Irving Fields on his August 26 marriage to Jane Ferdinand.
